Principal's Pen

It amazes me the number of things that we are able to accomplish at Sand Point School. This past week we have had our students involved in activities every single day. From 7 am in the morning until after 9 pm at night - we are proud that our school is a safe place for kids to come and learn, socialize, serve others and the community and have a rewarding (and fun) time.

We have an experienced and committed staff that tries really hard to consistently do what is best for kids. We have a community that cares about kids and is willing to support activities at the school. And, most important, we have a great bunch of kids who are responsive to instruction and are becoming enthusiastic learners!

It is my pleasure to serve as the Principal of Sand Point School - the best is yet to come!

@King Cove School -- Sand Point JH 59- King Cove 38

The winds were howling and gusting in King Cove Saturday. At the same time there was another kind of storm brewing in the T-Jacks/Rookies' Gym, as the undefeated Sand Point JH Basketball team squared off against the host King Covers. The visiting Eagles came out on top - the final score was SDP 59 - KVC 38.

The swarming Eagle defense made up for a cold shooting night, enabling the visitors to jump out to 10 -3 lead at the end of the first quarter. That lead expanded to a 29-13 half time advantage.

While Colten Mack directed the team and scored 24 points and 12 assists, he had lots of help from the big Eagle center, Jonathan Rotter - who scored his first triple double of the season - scoring 14 points, blocking 10 shots and pulling down 15 rebounds. Griffen Lee led the team in defense and steals while scoring 10 points. Justina Parami scored 9 points and Dantezza Pangilinan added 2. All nine SDP players were able to play and contribute to the victory.

King Cove's high scoring Ian Samuelson was held to just five first half points. He finished the game with 22. McKenna Gould added 10 points, followed by Emmaly Brandell with 4 points and Sydney Wilson with 2.

In an earlier contest the Sand Point 6th and 7th grades lost to King Cove's 6th, 7th and 8th grade team. The final score was 41-24.

The 19 members and 3 chaperones hope to headed back to Sand Point on Sunday. The Eagles have been invited to play in a JH High Tournament hosted by Bristol Bay, February 2, 2013. Participation is based on the ability to raise and meet the travel expenses required. Jr High Sports, in the AEBS, are a non-funded activity that depends upon community support to meet the expenses. Thank you everyone for your continuing support.

Regional Cross Country Update

The Sand Point Cross-Country team headed by ferry and plane to Bristol Bay last Thursday and Friday to compete in the 2012 Region 1 Cross-Country Championships. It was a fun and unusual method of travel. The course was changed a half an hour before the call, due to 4 inches of rain that fell on Friday night.

Julia Johnson and Bobbi Dushkin ran a great race and placed 20th and 24th place. There was a total of 62 girls in the race this year. Senior Bobbi Dushkin wished she had ran cross-country all of her high-school career. It was a great first regional race for her. Julia will be back next year. Julia plans on running all winter, and next summer. Great job girls!
